	DB: - Hon'ble Shri K. H. N. Kuranga, C.J. & Hon'ble Shri L. C. Bhadoo, J. 23.06.2003 Shri P.S. Koshy, Govt. Advocate for the petitioner / State. The petitioner / State by this petition filed under Article 226 / 227 of the Constitution of India has challenged the order of the Madhya Pradesh Administrative Tribunal, Jabalpur dated 11-2-2000 passed in Original Application No. 57/96 by which the learned Tribunal allowed the application of the petitioner and passed an order for expunging the adverse remarks regarding Marpeet and abusing entered in the annual confidential report of the respondent for the period ending 31st March 1992 because the Tribunal reached to the conclusion that these remarks have been entered by the S.P. after he came to know that the applicant has been acquitted in the criminal case. On this ground the Tribunal considered the adverse remarks as unjustified and since the learned Govt. Advocate for the State could not reply to the arguments before the Tribunal, as such the Tribunal ordered for expunction of the adverse remarks.
